COMMISSIONERS' REPORT

In accordance with the Public Statutes of the State of New Hampshire the Commissioners of Carroll County submit their annual report together with the report of the Superintendent of the County Farm and of the various other County Officers.

There is very little new to report in Carroll County since the 1939 write-up. Things have gone on smoothly and the gross expenditures were less this year than in 1939. Last year there was a deficit of some $8,000.00 which was explained in the 1939 report; this has been taken care of during 1940 and the County books closed December 31st, with a balance of $2,013.85 in the hands of the County Treasurer.

The several amounts voted last year by the Delegation for various departments were, we think, wisely expended and almost none of these appropriations were over-run. It is impossible to estimate exactly what will be needed in some instances; as in the cases of the County Home and Hospital, and the Court expenses.

At the County Hospital last year some very hard board cases were admitted, requiring twenty-four hour attention, an extra nurse and special hospital beds. The latter were long needed and are now valuable assets at the institution. These cases added around $2,000.00 to the Farm's extra expenses and, of course, had not been anticipated.

In the case of Court's expenses, things were just the opposite. Some of the actual 1940 bills did not come in, so these expenses could not be paid during last year and a balance was left, but of necessity, these will have to be paid during 1941 which will make Court expenses seem larger during this year.

Upon the recommendation of the presiding justice, the windows on the north side of the court room were weather stripped because of drafts on the jury men and his Honor also requested a new chair. The court room shades were in poor condition, so new ones were purchased. All the office rooms in the front of the court house were painted as well as the upper and lower halls. Much of this work was done by direct relief cases who preferred to work for what they needed, rather than accept aid. The cost of these improvements was met by the court house appropriation of $2,000.00.

Many of the residents in the vicinity of the court house were desirous of being connected with the County water supply. Accordingly five contracts were drawn up with these parties and water is being furnished to them at the present time, bringing in an annual revenue of $162.00. There is no guarantee of continued service should the Commissioners find it necessary to shut the water off at any time.

Superintendent and Mrs. Richardson have continued their good work at the County Home and many improvements were completed during last year. Quite a bit of outside painting was done by House of Correction labor; and the general utility man mentioned in last year's report proved a valuable asset at the institution. Papering and painting has been done, floors were refinished, the kitchen and stairway improved, as well as the vegetable store room completely overhauled. Perhaps the largest undertaking at the Farm was the building of a shed one hundred feet long, made for the most part from lumber taken from the Pitman barn when razed, and from what salvage timber was not sold last year. All the work of this building was done by the utility man with the help of House of Correction inmates. This shed will be used for the storing of wood as well as farm machinery. The Bangs disease test made heavy inroads into the County herd and several animals were condemned; so at the present time there is a necessity for more cows in order to supply the institution with necessary milk and cream.

The same story must be told this year as last about town relief cases becoming County ones because of the five-year law. Several persons in the Home or Hospital were passed over to the County during 1940 continuing, of course, to need care and being the usual expense, but ceasing to bring in a pay check from some town at the end of each month. This was also the case with regard to direct relief off the Farm. To be exact, thirty cases, representing ninety-two people, were passed on to Carroll County by different towns during 1940 and the expenses of these people were approximately $5,000. Of course this procedure is very beneficial to towns and lowers their direct relief costs but it continually increases the County expenses.

One circumstance which is gratifying to the Commissioners is the fact that $5,000.00 is paid each year on the bond issue from money that, up until recently was expended annually for interest on temporary loans. For four years now the money needed to carry on until taxes came in from towns, which is usually not until fall, has been hired from the Frank W. Horne and Company, investment bankers of Hartford, Connecticut, at less than one-half of one per cent, thus saving annually enough money to reduce the County debt by $5,000.00. The bond issue at the present time is $55,000.00, the debt originally being $85,000.00. This is the only outstanding indebtedness of Carroll County excepting current bills.

Some mention should, of course, be made of the special investigation of Court expenses, so-called, which was conducted during 1940, by a Delegation Committee named for that purpose. The special representatives of that committee spent much time and energy thoroughly sorting out and classifying the various Court expenses. A detailed report of their findings, together with recommendations, has appeared in all the local papers.

The outlook for 1941 is good with chances of a reduced budget unless some unforeseen circumstance occurs.

Signed,

PERCY F. GARLAND,

EDWIN B. EDGERLY,

RAYMOND A. WEEKS,

Commissioners of Carroll County.

REPORT OF COUNTY PHYSICIAN

Carroll County Commissioners:

During the year 1940 there were nine deaths and five births at the County Home. This is a reduction of four deaths in the preceding year. The number of births is unchanged. There is a marked increase in the number of patients hospitalized during the past year due to chronic diseases of the aged, which required additional nursing. Otherwise, the health conditions at the County Home for the year 1940 were normal. There were no epidemics. Illness was largely confined to diseases incident to people of advanced age.

Physical equipment of the hospital is gradually improving. A short wave diathermy machine was purchased last year and has been given a great deal of use.

The nursing service has been of a high type. The patients have received very conscientious care.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson are to be congratulated for their enthusiastic cooperation and the unbounded interest shown throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. C. DUBE, M.D.
